Experience and Achievements

For over 20 years Belinda MacInnes has been coaching leaders and emerging leaders in both the private and public sectors, in Australia and globally. She is well versed in the intricacies of the global workplace and enjoys coaching executives as they manoeuvre their way through the complexities of global leadership.

Belinda's energy lies in exploring what is possible and what is not possible for today's leaders in both how they act and in who they are being. One of her key roles is to inspire leaders and emerging leaders to have increased SUSTAINABLE energy and engagement by bringing their authentic WHOLE-HEARTED selves to the workplace.

Belinda MacInnes is an internationally sought-after professional coach and coaching skills trainer. Belinda has over 8,000 one-on-one coaching hours, and with clients in 29 countries her coaching practice is truly international. She partners deeply with professionals so they no longer feel they are alone.

Her coaching clients include executives and managers within organisations, small business owners, and a handful of newer coaches whom she supervises and mentors. Her client list includes companies such as CBA, Shell, HSBC, PwC, ANZ, ITW, Seek, IAG, Westpac, JC Wiley & Sons; federal and state government departments such as WorkCover NSW and Tourism NT; and SME owners/entrepreneurs. Belinda's coaching style has been described as direct and authentic.
